NOTICE OF EXECUTIVE SESSION ACTION

The Little Hoover Commission, after meeting in executive session, announced that it has named Carole D'Elia as acting executive director of the Commission. In a separate action, the Commission named a search committee and announced that it will commence an executive search for a permanent executive director.

The Commission's current executive director, Stuart Drown, has resigned, effective October 31, 2013. Carole D'Elia is presently the Commission's deputy executive director. Details regarding the opening and application process will be posted on the Commission's website when available: www.lhc.ca.gov
